

Our vision is to see Jesus worshiped by all the peoples of the earth.
Our mission is to make disciples and train leaders to ignite church planting movements among the neglected peoples of the earth.

The Ultimate Injustice: Meditation On The Mission

As each new year begins, I set aside time to meditate on the mission statement of All Nations. I usually pray through the mission statement at least once daily, but at the new year, it's good to step back and ask the question:

"How can I uniquely be involved in making disciples and training leaders to ignite church planting movements among the neglected peoples of the earth?"

I would encourage all of us, Goers and Senders, to stop and spend some time praying through and discussing this as families, both spiritual and physical, as we continue into the new year.

To me, it is the ultimate injustice that some have so much access to Jesus while others have none. It also pains me to see followers of Jesus who are bored. You see, I actually believe that all of us were designed to be global influencers in one way or another because we were all called to the Great Commission...Continue Reading

Check out the video below for a sneak peek into All Nations Cape Town's training - FORGE - Church Planting Experience (CPx) - and a glimpse into how our regional hub is making disciples and training leaders to ignite church planting movements among the neglected peoples of the earth through FORGE and other training.

Shaping Instruments With Loving Skill

"We've chosen FORGE as an icon for what happens in this period: pressure, heat, iron-sharpening-iron, transformation, joy, deep friendship, travel, communal living, sharing parables, healing the sick, baptizing, fellowship around the table, and entering a new culture as a learner... the elements of this experience evoke the imagery of a Master Craftsman at His forge, shaping instruments with loving skill." - All Nations Cape Town

All Nations Spotlight - Brasov, Romania

While walking past Victoria's gate, I felt drawn to give her a visit. When I went to greet her, she was beaming. The first thing that came out of her mouth was, "Would you baptize me?" When my ministry partner told her "Yes", her next question was "When?" We said, "Today, if you're ready." She began to cry. She had been praying and fasting to get closer to God and desperately wanted to be baptized.

I left to go get her daughter, Anna (she was healed last year of toxin exposure from the local battery factory during an evangelistic outreach). Anna surprised me by meeting me on the road! She said that she had a sudden compulsion to go and check on her mom and had a dream the previous night about a man in sunglasses calling her. I was the man wearing sunglasses calling her!

Anna told me recently that Victoria had talked to her about being baptized in Jesus' name. Anna originally told Victoria that she was Romanian Orthodox and was too old to be baptized. This did not deter her Victoria. Instead, she sought God's response with fasting and prayer. God led my ministry partner and I to Victoria's home in response to her prayers.

After originally meeting Anna on the road, we went to baptize Victoria. The local river wasn't an option since Victoria is legally blind, semi-deaf and partially crippled - so Anna and my ministry partner baptized her using a bucket. Anna was going to be baptized last summer and encouraged many family members to take the step with her, but her husband Markus, who was a Mormon house church leader, stopped it all. Please pray for Markus to be drawn to Jesus.

It's amazing what God is doing these days. We had 3 households repent in the one week. One person, Eli, and his extended family live in makeshift homes in an abandoned train yard in Brasov, Romania. He opened his heart and home to Jesus and every person in his large family that we've met has prayed with us to accept Christ. Every time we go to his home someone else accepts Jesus. This week it was the mother,-in-law Angie. Last week it was the brother-in-law, Frank. The week before it was Eli, his wife Rahel and sister-in-law Sasha. Now, we are talking with Eli and Rahel about obeying Jesus through baptism. Please pray for this family!
